TRIAL BALANCE IS TO COME VERY SOON

Both Parties Anxious To See Results of Registration Today

(TIMES BUREAU AT STATE CAPITAL)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 4.—During the next week or ten days when most of the voters who registered on Saturday have forgotten about it, the two political parties will begin to strike off their first "trial balance" of the campaign.

The registration law requires the county auditors to make two copies of the registration lists—one for the republican county committee and the other for the democratic county committee.

WILL CHECK OFF NAMES
Both parties will at once begin to check off the names on the registration books to determine by comparing with the poll books, the number of republican and democratic voters registered. By this procedure the parties can reckon on their voting strength in November and lay plans to build up the weak places in the organization on the second registration day, Oct. 4.

Indications are that the registration system now in operation for the first time in Indiana, will tend to stimulate party organization activity.

SUCCESS TO HEAVEN
As no voter can vote Nov. 2 unless he or she has registered it is obvious that the party having the heaviest registration stands in the best chance of success. But the Saturday registration will not be conclusive. It may be that in a certain locality one party may have the advantage in the number of registrations on the first day, but it is the intention of both parties to center their efforts for the second registration day on the precincts and the counties in which they ran low.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING
Conflicting reports about the interest women are taking in the election are being received at the headquarters of the state committee, because of lack of organization, is having difficulty in building a strong women's organization. The republican workers report great success among the new voters. It is also discovered that in those sections of the state known as "democratic" in past years, the women are not taking much interest in the campaign and that these sections will show a light registration of women is certain. In some of the Northern Indiana counties it is reported that more than 80 per cent of the women will be registered Saturday.

McGILL TO Run For Congress
The Farmers-Labor party announced that J. H. McGill has accepted nomination for congressman from the Tenth district and his name will appear upon the ballot in the district.

Mr. McGill is a well known manufacturer of Valparaiso. He has accumulated a fortune through the manufacture of electrical accessories and other industries with which he is connected. He is preparing to make a strenuous campaign in the district.

Hammond headquarters for the party have been opened in Rooms 12 and 13 of the First Trust & Savings bank building. Gene Hunt will be in charge of the headquarters and may be found during the day and evening. Carl Mullen of Hammond has been placed in charge of the field work in the county.

The Farmers-Labor party is preparing to bring a number of speakers of national reputation into Lake county and the Tenth district to help with the fight. The party has been made and meetings will be held in every community, using the new tent recently purchased.

"BIG BILL" UNDER ARREST ONCE MORE
"Big Bill" Simethick of Indiana Harbor is in again. This is either his thirty-first or thirty-second arrest out of which he has two convictions to his credit. This time he is charged with keeping a house of ill-fame at 32nd and Erie streets. Those arrested in the past are E. H. Lafford, North Harbor, Elms Miller, Chicago and Bett Wilson, Riverside. The arrests were made by officers Zarkovich and Jencowski.

THOMPSON IN HAMMOND
"Big Bill" Thompson and a bunch of his constituents numbering 100 in all, were in Hammond last night on the trail of a festive feast. Cakes were laid for the crowd at a well known fish resort and you can't find a patch for love or money today in the fish dinner sector.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS
Owing to the new additional advances in the cost of labor, print paper and all other material used in the publication of this paper, we are compelled to increase the price of display advertising 5 cents per inch. News, groceries, markets, and drug stores. This increase will take effect Wednesday, Sept. 1st.

NOTICE TO READERS
On and after this date a charge for special death announcements, obituaries, lodge and society meetings, located in this paper will be made by the business office.

NEW WAR WITH GERMANS? "NO" SAYS HINDENBURG

NOT ENOUGH TROOPS TO KEEP ORDER

Von Hindenburg Declares That Germany Needs Army Badly

BY FRANK MARON
(STAFF CORRESPONDENT, N. SERVICE)
Copyright, 1920, By The I. N. S. HANOVER, GERMANY, Sept. 4.—Germany commences a new war? Impossible! Germany's "war God," Von Hindenburg frowns with displeasure at the mention of hot-headed young Prussian officers, eager for a war of revenge against France. In the booming voice of an army officer who has seen much service in the field, he declared that he has any liking for any war or that his native country has any warlike aims. He laughed loudly and clapped his hands together when told that a large part of the world still regards Germany as a military menace.

OLD SOLDIER STILL ALERT
Gen. Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg and Von Hindenburg, more commonly known as "Field Marshal von Hindenburg," chief of staff of the German army, is living quietly and simply at 52 Sellhorst st. Despite his 72 years he is agile and alert; his voice is firm and his hand is steady. He has the straight figure of a soldier.

It is ridiculous for any thinking man to assert that Germany is in a position to undertake a new war," declared the old soldier, when asked in the library of his home today. "We have not got enough troops left to maintain order in Germany. As a matter of fact, it appears that the allies do not want us to maintain order. It is impossible for Germany to attack France."

HAS NO ARMY
"Germany has no army, no artillery, no aircraft, and no munitions. How could she go to war? No ocean separates her from her enemies. Many months are necessary to prepare for war and you will notice that France has not been idle."

"But Germany needs an army. Russia will soon be knocking at our eastern door, I believe. If Russia sues (Continued on page five).

VOTERS REGISTER SLOWLY

Registration of voters in Hammond is dragging along rather slowly today and at noon it was estimated that only about ten per cent of the city's total vote had been registered.

A few precincts were running higher than the average but all over the city little interest seemed to be shown. It had been expected that the women voters would turn out strong today but from the various precincts showed that the men and women were running about even.

It is possible that there will be a late hour rush at the registration booths and preparations are being made to care for such an eventuality. The registration boards will be in session at all of the polling places until 8 o'clock tonight, and leaders of both party organizations are urging all who can possibly do so to sign up after supper. This will take much work from the "mopping up" squads of the different precincts and will also lighten the load of the registration board on October 4 when there will probably be many changes to record.

WEST HAMMOND SCHOOLS WILL OPEN TUESDAY

Public schools of West Hammond, will open next Tuesday morning, September 7th.

The Wentworth school starts the new year with a splendid corps of instructors and it is believed that the schools will register another forward step. The high school has now been equipped with an up-to-date science laboratory and courses in general science are now offered.

In addition to the regular commercial academic work the school will have courses in mechanical drawing and manual training. A very complete course in domestic science for the girls of the seventh and eighth grades is being offered. Last year a number of the girls made their own graduation dresses.

During the vacation months the Mrs. Helen Keller, who is the teacher in charge of the club work has visited the homes of the boys and girls enrolled in the clubs and reports the following membership: Garden club, 39; Water club, 25; Pet Stock club, 12; Canine club, 20. In the past few days several hundred quarts of fruit and vegetables have been canned by the girls in the domestic science rooms of the school.

The Board of Education has been working hard to keep the Wentworth school up to a high standard and the work is meeting with the approval of the patrons. The board is composed of Martin H. Finckh, president; Fred Siegrist, secretary; A. J. Brunel, J. J. Connor, Fred Stelling, John Murray and Joseph Miller. Mrs. W. G. Glaymore is superintendent of the school.

Did You Hear That

WHAT'S the matter with the presidential straw vote brigade this summer?

CONCERT IS BIDDING FOR JAZZ BABIES

South Hohman Street Merchants Switch Band for Orchestra from 7 to 10.

"Oh, You Jazz Baby!"
"The world has gone crazy over jazz!"—Quotation from a famous minister.

The band concerts on South Hohman street will be no more. A seven piece jazz orchestra will take its place and will continue the concerts through September, playing every Saturday evening from seven until ten o'clock. One of Chicago's most popular quartets will appear three times during the program Saturday evening.

The change in the original schedule from band concerts to jazz concerts, is predicted by the South Hohman street merchants who are financing the affair, will prove far more popular. An effort was made some time ago to get the jazz orchestra but the members were on a vacation in Chile.

The change in the weekly program will prove far more expensive than was first figured, but it will be an entertainment from start to finish and will get a good hearing, states Harry Grimmer, who is one of the promoters of the affair.

"Among those who are active in making things hum on South Hohman," says Mr. Grimmer, is the firm of Tillman and Startman, who are soon to move from 439 Hohman to the new Sprague building which will be completed in a few days.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the announcement of the program for Saturday night.

Cox Abusive

BY HARRY L. ROGERS
(STAFF CORRESPONDENT, N. SERVICE)
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 4.—"Either you, Mr. Hays, are a perjurer or Mr. Upham is a falsifier."

With this dramatic alternative, Gov. James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee, brought to a climax in a speech here today his denunciation of republican leaders who, he claims, are raising a $15,000,000 "slush fund" with which to buy the presidency of the U. S.

Harding Gentle
BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(STAFF CORRESPONDENT, N. SERVICE)
MARION, O., Sept. 4.—To a band of U. S. marines, who came to accompany his home today, Senator Warren G. Harding gave what can be considered his only answer to democratic charges that the republicans are seeking to buy the presidency.

While mentioning no names, Senator Harding's short, informal talk to the soldiers was pointed in its references to the charge and tactics of the democratic opposition.

"As I see it, I must not drag the attention of the American people into a mire when it is their whole-hearted desire that their attention should be centered upon the problems which we all wish to face bravely and wisely, and together."

"As I see it, I must concentrate my attention upon construction and not upon abuse."

Final arrangements have now been made for the monster Lake county labor celebration and opening of the Farmer-Labor party campaign at the Indiana Harbor lake front next Monday. The labor organization committee has worked together with the committee of the city council and it is now an assured fact that the affair will be a success, weather not interfering.

MAKE THEM SHOW THEIR STATE BADGES

None But Fish and Game Wardens Can Halt You While Fishing.

"Persons on being taken into custody for violations of fish and game laws of Indiana should require the person accosting them to show their badges," said Richard Lieber, director of the state department of conservation. "Fish and game wardens have badges showing they are fish and game wardens and the badges are numbered. The person arrested should take down the number for possible future use."

Mr. Lieber commented on the situation in Lake county where constables and deputy sheriffs have been arrested for alleged fish and game law violations. Only wardens or their deputies are authorized to make such arrests, Mr. Lieber said. Several constables and deputy sheriffs in Lake county have lost their jobs as the result of the state official's investigation.

Mr. Lieber conferred with Joseph Eschbach, chief examiner for the state board of accounts, today to ascertain if books of Lake county justices of the peace can be looked into with a view of checking up fines and bonds said to have been taken from foreigners who have been arrested in violation of the law by constables or deputy sheriffs.

Now the assistant attorney-general follows a long line of litigation. First citizens of Marion Co. sought to enjoin the County Auditor from collecting revenue under the Indiana law. The injunction was granted, but was later set aside by the appellate court. Upon transfer to the supreme court the decision of the local court was upheld and the state court was held to have exceeded its authority.

Now the assistant attorney-general contends the case should be thrown out because the question in controversy no
